

Sample Cross-Curricular Multiple Intelligence Activities for Middle/Secondary Students

Linguistic Debate an issue Use a Paideia Seminar Use small group discussions	Logical-Mathematical Describe sequences of events using timelines Create outlines Design a code
Spatial Create scale models Use pictures for note-taking Use graphic organizers such as mind maps	Musical Write songs from a specified time period Create music videos to demonstrate understanding Use rhythm to help memorize facts
Intrapersonal Keep a journal Write reflective essays Set personal goals and track progress	Bodily-Kinesthetic Role-play a scene from a story, a historical event, or a job interview Conduct experiments Participate in a scavenger hunt
Interpersonal Hold mock talk shows Work in cooperative groups Interview people	Naturalist Work outside on project Use visuals related to nature to apply information Research environmental aspects of a problem